Group events

In this first edition of the GBBC in India, participants across the country led groups of schoolchildren and others on birding trips. In Kutch, the Kutch Ecological Research Centre took 29 schoolchildren to Berachiya Dam and counted 66 species. In Coimbatore, Siruthuli gathered 25 students and counted 19 species. Scaly Trails organised multiple bird counts with students from Sholai School in Kodaikanal. Other groups that participated included Coimbatore Birding Club (Coimbatore), Youth for a Living Planet (Ramnagar, Uttarakhand) and Watershed Organisation Trust (Pune). In Mysore, birders from across the city organised events at three different locations on the four days of the Count.
